

Scottish National Racing Pigeon Club

Annual Forum

Saturday 12th October

Leapark Hotel Grangemouth

FK3 9BX

6.30 pm start

(This year we have a very interesting line up on our panel)

Kevin Winter. Andrew Naylor. Peter Keogh

Kevin Winter: UK pigeon analyst Kevin Winter is a self-taught health researcher and pigeon analyst. He has tested the health of more than 44 000 pigeons in his own laboratory in Sunderland. Having raced pigeons for many years, Kevin came to understand how dangerous the ignorant and indiscriminate use of pigeon medication can be. So he began his research as a lay student under a professional veterinarian, investigating how to combine science with practical wisdom.

Naylor, Sons & Richardson: 1st Up North Combine Reims2018.Top North East of England fanciers for many years with a host of tremendous results flying in the strong Up North Combine. Andrew is a very experienced fancier with a wealth of knowledge in the pigeon sport.

Peter Keogh: 1st SNRPC Arras 2019 Peter needs no introduction to the Scottish fancy, his pigeons have excelled in all competition especially in national racing where he has enjoyed some tremendous performances over the past few years. Peter has won the SNRPC Claret Jug for best overall average in national races two years running.

Tickets £15(includes two course meal) Accommodation available and can be booked through the secretary John McFall 01698 644058. snrpsecretary@hotmail.co.uk or Press Officer, Duncan Knox: 01368 864174. Mob: 07484329604. d.knox595@btinternet.com